

Let's face it, we could all be better at managing change in our lives.

No matter who you are or what you do, if you better manage the changes you face daily, you will improve your self, your career, and your business.

We're starting this free newsletter to publish real-life stories of change-related success. It is especially encouraging in today's environment to know when people succeed in starting-up businesses, commercializing innovations, transitioning careers, and discovering entrepreneurial breakthroughs.

In only our second year, the Enterprise for Mobile Media Authors Publications, aka EMMA Publications, will release its second change-based book and with it, initiate this twice-monthly newsletter for readers interested in true, uplifting accounts of personal, professional, and business-based success. We're bringing these stories to you along with practical, insightful tips for using change as an ally during these difficult economic times.

If you're interested in gaining tips to improve your life by better managing change, and hearing from real-life leaders who have succeeded by proactively changing, then sign up for this free newsletter.

We hate spam as much as you do and promise not to share your email address with anyone, and if at any time, you're not completely satisfied with our service, simply unsubscribe.

We've included an outline of our first letter scheduled for release by April 9th. You can also check us out at www.emmapublications.com.
